POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The following nominations are announced to the electors of the county as candidates for the offices specified subject to the decision of the republican nominating convention

We cannot for the present believe that the voters of Pennsylvania will make the campaign with the assertion that Mr Blaine is not a statesman and a great one, and if the issue is made a matter of personal preference we are willing to abide by the decision of the majority. But if the republican leaders are going to make the campaign on the assertion that Mr Blaine is not a statesman, they will have a hard row to hoe.

Gen Dana, editor of the Dayton News Democrat, is unfortunate in his political opinions. He is an old soldier and a good man, and if the former was a qualification for republicanism the latter would be hundred times so, but the democrats persecute them continuously because they conscientiously prosecute their duty as citizens. But if the republicans are persecuting and the democrats are right the democrats do about right to persecute.

I cannot as though President Myers was doing a service that a little more of it would do our body. The statement ever made to public is calculated to obtain by a good many when one is forced therein one to conclusion on the other by a garbled statement. Mr Hamlin, one of the most popular republicans of the county and formerly one of the editors of something over a thousand in the field. A man who said Pa'l Pennsylvania Dutch as heavily as John Myers can is hard man to beat in Lancaster county. We wish him all manner of happiness, wealth and many votes and a red majority in

Mr. C. P. HARRIS, of Duke Centre, in announcing his candidacy for county commissioner, is subjected to the ill censure of the republican county convention. Mr Harris came to Duke Centre a poor young man, and by his energy, push and business ability has become one of the leading property holders and business men of the borough. He has the confidence and respect of his neighbors, who all believe he would make an excellent county commissioner. If we mistake not, he is the latest bolter in candidate for this nomination, but made only with fresh in the memories of many of others. He is an honest, straight republican, and the convention will not overlook his claims in making the selection of their standard.

Gen Beaver, in speech before the republican convention in Altoona, thought, on the 19th of April, he would be hard, speaking of the soldiers' women. It seems that many young ladies make that a condition precedent to marriage that the intended shows an honorable discharge from the army. Many of the most beautiful young ladies of this town of my own make an exception, daughters of well known soldiers, when the suitors are carrying the proper license, and making money and showing themselves worthy of the wishes and responsibility. BERGSTRESSER'S

Indigestion and Biliousness.

Whether over-eating or drinking are made harmless by using Hop Bitters freely, giving elegant appetite, sound sleep, and a vigorous system. Ministers, lawyers, mothers, singers, actors, actresses, all need Hop Bitters as a protection against sickness. Nursing mothers will find it the best tonic ever used, and it never fails to relieve and cure Kidney and Urinary complaints. Use Hop Bitters and be well. Don't suffer yourself or let your friends suffer, but have them use Hop Bitters and get well and keep well. Remember, Hop Bitters is not a vile drunken nostrum, but the purest and best medicine ever made, the "Invalid's Friend and Hope," and no person or family should be without them. See other column.

Eminent Testimony.

N. Y. Witness, May 15, 1880.

"I find that in addition to the principles contained in their composition they contain the extracts of Buchu and other well known and highly appreciated medicinal roots, herbs and barks, rendering it, as we understand it, a purely vegetable preparation, and in a beverage form, to reach the seat of disease, which is the stomach, liver and blood. What the manufacturers claim it to be, we will say is a medicinal preparation and not a beverage, and it must not be used as the latter except as a medicine."

From a careful analysis of their formula which we witnessed under oath we find that in every wineglassful of Hop Bitters, the active medicinal properties made from the distilled spirits are equal to a full dose for an adult, which fact in our opinion, subjects it to an internal revenue tax as a medicinal preparation.

GREEN & RAUB, U. S. Gen. In. Rev.

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism. Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood, my limbs were puffed and filled with water. All the best physicians agreed that nothing would cure me. I continued to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles, the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a perfect cure in my case; otherwise I would have been in my grave.

J. W. Bonny, Buffalo, Oct. 1, '81.

Poverty and Suffering.

"I was drugged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well for less than one doctor's visit will cost, I know it."

A Home Testimony

Of Dennis' Blood Liver and Kidney Cure for scrofula: A son of R. W. Hall, now 17 years of age, living at Cliffsville, Pa., was always a sickly, suffering boy; the best physicians having done all they could do, and the doctors pronounced him incurable unless by amputation of one leg and arm on which there were several running sores. Put logs using 16 bottles of the above medicine, at $1 per bottle, the boy is to all appearances sound, and the remedy is pronounced universal approval wherever used. Ask your druggist for it or address C. T. Dennis, Prestonsville, Pa.

Some unknown benefactor has just paid the entire debt of Nantucket, Mass.

Songs Never Sung.

Show them that verse you wrote. Something like this, maybe?

"There are who touch the magic string,
And noisy fame is proud to win them;
Alas! for those who never sing,
But die with all their music in them."

Yes, that is beautiful, pathetic and true; and very appropriate. The poet alludes to people who are modest and retiring, and who feel that their efforts are of small value. Which is right up at a better show on the opposite side. Rev. W. H. H. Murray, of New York, speaking of Parker's Ginger Tonic, says: "I have used it in my family, and I regard it as a most valuable remedy." Rev. Wm. Williams, of Chapman, Sanilac Co., Pa., a prominent business man of that place, says: "I have suffered with asthma for over forty years, and had a terrible attack in December and January last. Parker's Ginger Tonic was recommended to me. I procured a bottle and found relief from the first dose. The effect astonished me. Since using it I have not had a hard cough, and but few asthma. My breathing is now as perfect as it ever was. I am satisfied that in no way can I keep so valuable a remedy in my house than Parker's Ginger Tonic will cure a cough, cold or any throat or lung trouble." Sold by druggists at 50c. and $1 per bottle.

Tonic Laxative Horse Powders, the only guaranteed purely vegetable powder in the market, put up in tin cans. Price 50cts. Sold by E. F. Richmond & Son.

Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment, for external use is equally good. For sale at A. B. Armstrong's.

I always keep your medicines in stock. Brown's Elixir is selling better than any Cough Medicine I have, and with good results. C. M. Sarris, drug gist, Charleston, Mich.
